

FORECLOSURE PREVENTION CHAPTER 13 COURTHOUSE OUTREACH PROGRAM- BROOKLYN

The City Bar Justice Center, Consumer Bankruptcy Project, Chapter 13 Foreclosure Prevention Program has an attorney available in the Conrad B. Duberstein U.S. Bankruptcy Courthouse, 271 Cadman Plaza East, Brooklyn, New York, to interview and advise pro se debtors who are faced with foreclosure and have filed, or are about to file, a Chapter 13 case.

This program provides free legal advice and assistance to eligible New York City residents who do not have a lawyer, and are considering filing a Chapter 13 case in order to save their home from foreclosure.

- ❖ Assistance will be provided on a first-come first-serve basis.
- ❖ The attorney will be available to:
- ❖ Advise about Chapter 13 bankruptcy and how it may apply to your situation;
- ❖ If appropriate, schedule appointments for follow-up legal assistance with the Consumer Bankruptcy Project; and/or
- ❖ Refer appropriate cases to other civil legal services or social service agencies.

The attorney will NOT be available to:

- Make an appearance in court;
- Prepare court documents;
- Conduct any investigation into the facts of the case; or
- Negotiate with creditors or their attorneys.

Where: The Conrad B. Duberstein United States Bankruptcy Courthouse
271 Cadman Plaza East
Brooklyn, New York 11201
Room: Pro Se Clerk's Office – Room 1592, 1st Floor

When: Alternate Wednesdays, starting March 11, 2009, between the hours of 10:00 AM and 1:00 PM

*Additional dates and times are available from the bankruptcy clerk's office at (347)394-1711 or the court's website at www.nyeb.uscourts.gov.

Please note that the attorney is not an employee of the United States Bankruptcy Court and that advice that he or she renders is not to be construed as the Court's advice.